

Proclamation

Shooting for Peace Day at the Southfield High School for the Arts & Technology

March 28, 2017

WHEREAS, the Mission of the LEGENDS Shooting for Peace initiative is to bring communities together and to promote education and encourage young people to engage in peaceful activities; and

WHEREAS, the non-profit Shooting for Peace Project—Jerome “JYD” Williams Youth Development Project, Inc. and Detroit Chapter: Legends National Basketball Retired Players Association, located in the City of Southfield, seeks to bring together community members, schools and students, creating memorable experiences and educational opportunities; and

WHEREAS, the Shooting for Peace Program—Celebrity Basketball Game is to be held at Southfield High School for the Arts & Technology at 2pm on Tuesday, March 28, 2017, preceded by a forum discussion for youth and community members—with featured speakers from the community and special celebrity guests;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that I, Kenson J. Siver, Mayor of the City of Southfield, County of Oakland, State of Michigan, do hereby proclaim March 28, 2017, as Shooting for Peace Day at Southfield High School for the Arts & Technology Day in the City of Southfield, and urge all citizens to inspire our youth to unite, to reach their greatest potential and to “think and dream big.”

Kenson J. Siver, Mayor
City of Southfield
