

CRITICAL SKILLS FOR STUDENTS

EVERFI

Shooting For Peace is a community education program led by NBA player and global ambassador Jerome 'JYD' Williams and NBA Legends. The program brings communities together through digital education, creativity, leadership and sports. Dozens of current and former NBA take part in Shooting For Peace activities every year.

EverFi is an education technology leaders that has partnered with Shooting For Peace to power critical skills education opportunities to students across North America. EverFi has trained over 18 million students at 20,000 K-12 schools and maintains deep relationships with the NBA, its teams, and numerous alumni.

Develop Your Own Custom-Branded Education Program with Shooting For Peace

Shooting For Peace and EverFi enable NBA players and alumni to power their own branded education program in any community across North America. It's your program, your brand and EverFi manages all teacher training, course implementation, community events, and social media. Programs range from just a few schools to regional 100+ school programs.

Get Started Today:

Jerome 'JYD' Williams
702-290-3113 • jyd1313@yahoo.com

Select from a variety of education topics including:

